DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 16-18 and 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lee et al (5,749,278), hereafter Lee, in view of Shannon (GB209,002). Lee discloses main body 10, 20, 50; punching force provided by punch 20; depressing force provided by element 33; external force is inherently provided by a user; non-linear leveraging rod 31, 33, 30, 32; force receiving portion 32; pivot portion 31; bent portion adjacent element 33; distance between the bent portion and the force-receiving portion is farther than the distance between the bent portion and the pivot portion as seen in figures 4 and 5; element 33 rests on the main body when no external force is exerted on the force-receiving portion as shown in figure 4; as seen in figure 4, the bent portion has an angle from 145 to 160 degrees juxtaposed elements 32 and elements 33. Lee does not disclose a roller bearing, however, Shannon teaches roller bearing h. It would have been obvious to a roller bearing in Lee as taught by Shannon in order to reduce friction between the moving parts of the apparatus. Note Shannon discloses a roller for reducing friction on page 2, lines 10-15.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 3724

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
